We Make Accessible..... Child Focussed Family Mediation Services

We place children, families and relationships first, this is the direction at Feenikx Counselling & Family Mediation.

Feenikx Counselling & Mediation deliver Family Separation services on the North West Coast of Tasmania in both our Burnie or Devonport Location's.

We will assist you to find a way through the disarray by communication and resolution with a child devoted program and commitment.

Information about Family Dispute Resolution

Family Dispute Resolution Practitioners will not provide legal advice, but are qualified under the Family Law ACT 1975 to provide family dispute resolution services and issuance of section 60I certificate (when appropriate).

Our Mediators aim to ensure both parties are heard and understood. They will allow you the opportunity to build a child focussed parenting plan that suits your families needs together, free Mutually agreed upon parenting plans that are child focussed are our speciality. All information is treated confidentiality and with respect. Mediation is not suitable for everyone, an assessment will be undertaken to see whether Family Dispute Resolution is right for your family.

Our Journey is to provide an affordable, prompt, confidential, professional and reliable service, tailored to your needs..

Our initial phone consultation is free, then the rest is up to you!

Feenikx Counselling & Mediation aim is to assist you to navigate through the difficult times of family separation..
